Junior Counselor

Location: Hunt Hill Audubon Sanctuary

Supervisors: Day Camp Director

Term: As needed in June, July and August

The Friends of Hunt Hill Audubon Sanctuary, Inc. announce seasonal volunteer openings for Junior Counselors at the Hunt Hill Nature Center and Audubon Sanctuary in Sarona, Wisconsin. Hunt Hill has 600 acres of old-growth forests, prairie meadows, northern bogs, and glacial lakes, owned by the National Audubon Society and managed locally by the Friends of Hunt Hill. Hunt Hill is a residential environmental educational center for youth, adults, and families.

Summary of Position:

Junior Counselors will work closely with the Day Camp Director and seasonal Environmental Educators to create a safe and fun environment for youth in our Day Camp programs. Junior counselors are an important part of our team and assist in supervision of campers, help with program set-up, crafts, swim time, overall operations of the nature sanctuary on a day-to-day basis and are role models to our campers.

Responsibilities:

1. Assist Environmental Educators (EE's) in camp set up and swim and craft times.
2. Assist EE's in supervision of day camp youth.
3. Assist, as needed, with general camp duties: nature store, end of day clean up, next day set up, etc.
4. Based on interests, opportunities may be available to create and lead select activities.

Requirements:

1. Interest in nature and the outdoors.
2. Enthusiasm and dependability.
3. Desire to gain valuable work experience.
4. Experience and/or interest in working with youth ages 5-12
5. Willingness to commit to the mission of Hunt Hill.
6. Mature and responsible.
7. At least 12 years of age by the start of volunteering.

Benefits:

- Potential for employment as Environmental Educator in future years
- Experience working in a camp setting
- Build your resume with a great experience
