Environmental Educator (Part-time, Seasonal)

The Friends of Hunt Hill Audubon Sanctuary (FOHHAS) is a not-for-profit organization, open to all, dedicated to fostering understanding, appreciation, and protection of the environment. FOHHAS provides hands-on outdoor education to youth, adults, and the public. FOHHAS protects nearly 600 acres of Wisconsin lands and waters.

Summary: Environmental Educators will work closely with the Program Director to implement effective environmental education programs at our facility, primarily to school youth in pre-kindergarten through grade 8. Environmental educators teach and lead a variety of established nature programs to visiting school groups. Environmental Educators can expect a fun and diverse work atmosphere. Training in environmental education fundamentals, specific program curriculum, emergency procedures, and working with youth will be provided. Work schedules vary and is based on school enrollment and dates, but the majority field trips occur during the spring (April-June) and fall (September-October) seasons. A typical day begins at 8:30 am and ends by 3:00 pm.

Specific Duties Include:

1. Prepare for programs by becoming comfortable with the provided lesson plans, materials, and settings.
2. Lead fun and hands-on, outdoor-based environmental education programs to visiting school groups, using developed curriculum, in an engaging and enthusiastic manner.
3. Assist in logistics for programs, including program set-up and clean up.
4. Ensure safety of students during programs.

Qualifications:

1. Possess an interest in nature, the outdoors and working with youth.
2. Enthusiastic, dependable, and trustworthy.
3. Demonstrated ability to work with minimal supervision, in outdoor settings, under a variety of weather conditions.
4. Experience teaching natural history/environmental education programs is preferred, but not required.

Compensation:

1. $80/day, $40/half day
2. Opportunities to learn new skills and develop environmental education programs.
