

About Hunt Hill

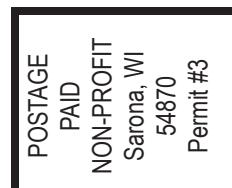

Hunt Hill is a nature preserve and learning center, open to all, dedicated to fostering the understanding, appreciation, and protection of the environment.

Donated to National Audubon in 1954, it is now owned and managed locally by a group of volunteers known as Friends of Hunt Hill Audubon Sanctuary (FOHHAS). FOHHAS has been improving, maintaining and managing the property since 1989 with an emphasis on nature programming.

Hunt Hill offers a variety of programs for all ages, interests and abilities. In addition to scheduled programs, Hunt Hill can be rented out for retreats, weddings, reunions, educational programming and more.

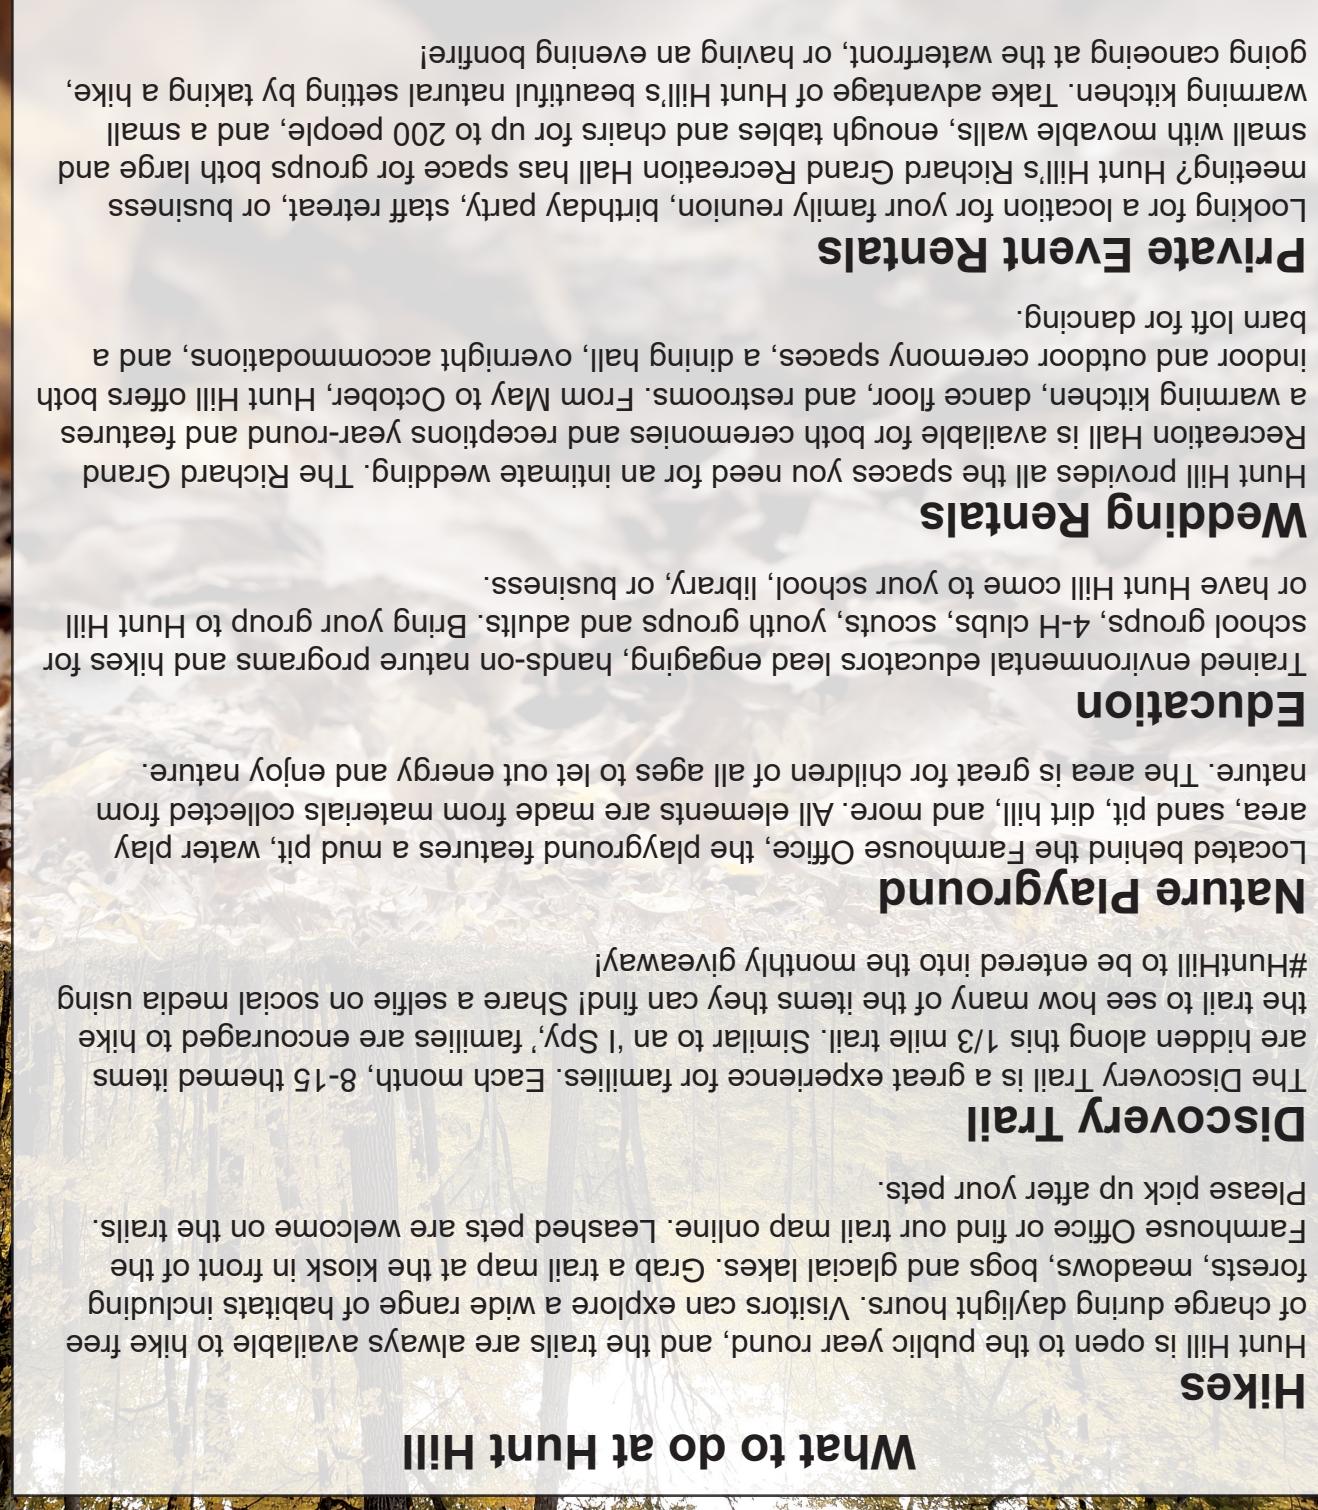

Hunt Hill protects nearly 600 acres of pristine Northwestern Wisconsin land. The property is free and open to the public year-round during daylight hours. Visitors can explore over seven miles of hiking trails that meander through old growth forests, around clear glacial lakes, into a floral meadow and across a boardwalk bog.

To learn more about Hunt Hill's trails, facilities, and programs, please visit www.hunthill.org, call 715-635-6543, or find us on social media.

Birds & Beer:

What I Learned From 1600 Birds

Wednesday, November 2, 2022

Birds add to the quality of our lives in so many ways: They eat insect pests, add color and music to our daily existence, and fascinate us with their behaviors and adaptations. But what they teach is much more complex, and surprisingly subtle. Join ornithologist and author Steve Betchkal as he enumerates the wonder of wild birds in personal stories and images.

- Location: Turtleback Golf, Rice Lake
- Check-in: 5:30 pm; Program: 6:00 pm
- Program Fee: $15/person
- Registration required. Limit: 60

Glow Hike
